

Concert Technologies Announces Sponsorship of IREM 2015 Industry Forecast Meeting and Vendor Blender

DULLES, VA, January 21, 2015 – Concert Technologies today announced its sponsorship of the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) 2015 Industry Forecast Meeting and Vendor Blender where it will showcase its riserSAFE program. The IREM 2015 Industry Forecast Meeting will be held on January 29th at the Renaissance Arlington Capital View Hotel.

The IREM 2015 Industry Forecast Meeting will feature a presentation by industry experts on the impact of the economy on real estate properties and the local market—a must-attend for any commercial real estate property manager. In addition to the presentation, real estate property managers can connect with industry partners at the vendor showcase.

“IREM has been a great partner for the riserSAFE program and we are excited for the opportunity to sponsor this important yearly event,” said Dennis Mazaris, President and CEO of Concert Technologies and developer of the riserSAFE program. “It is a natural fit to showcase our riser management services for commercial property managers at the IREM Vendor Blender.”

The riserSAFE program offers nationwide riser management services to multi-tenant commercial property managers. Under the riserSAFE program, Concert Technologies maximizes building IP infrastructure within riser closet spaces and provides security and organization of the building’s riser system and telephone closets.
